5 DAYS LEAD PRACTITIONER LEVEL
TRAINING & CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Today, with competition in industry at an all time high, TPM may be the only thing that stands between success and total failure for some companies. It has been proven to be a program that works. It can be adapted to work not only in industrial plants, but in construction, building maintenance, transportation, and in a variety of other situations. Employees must be educated and convinced that TPM is not just another "program of the month" and that management is totally committed to the program and the extended time frame necessary for full implementation. If everyone involved in a TPM program does his or her part, an unusually high rate of return compared to resources invested may be expected.

MANDATORY CERTIFICATION MODELS:

1. FUNDAMENTALS OF TOTAL PRODUCTIVE MAINTENANCE
2. PRINCIPLES & PRACTICES RELATE TO TOTAL PRODUCTIVE MAINTENANCE
3. DIFFERENCE AND SIMILARITIES BETWEEN TPM AND TQM
4. PERQUISITES PROGRAMS OF TOTAL PRODUCTIVE MAINTENANCE
